

Register one week before the class start-date so that we can have an accurate count for planning purposes. PQI reserves the right to cancel the class if the minimum number of registration requirements is not met. We also reserve the right to limit the class to a maximum number of attendees. In the case of cancellation, PQI shall credit the class fee in FULL. PQI is not liable for airline, lodging or any other associated incidental costs. Upon an attendee canceling the class, the attendee will incur any administrative and other charges not exceeding $50 per attendee. The attendee may chose to apply the entire amount towards another class within six months of the original enrollment date. A substitution is allowed at any time but not after the class has begun.
